KOMPAS

SLOVAKIA

Nestled in the heart of Europe, Slovakia is a little gem, packed with diverse regions, rich folk history, stunning landscapes, activities galore, numerous UNESCO sites and so much more...

BRATISLAVA

KOMPAS

One of the youngest capitals, its highlight is the contrast between its 2,400-years-old history and the energy of a youthful city.

FACTS

Of all the capitals on Earth, only Bratislava can boast of the fact that it borders the two foreign countries (Hungary and Austria).

KOMPAS

KOSICE

Kosice is the 2nd largest city in Slovakia.
A place where east and west meet,
where history and human destiny
mix with the present.

FACTS

Kosice was a gateway between east & west in the past, today a gateway to six nearby UNESCO World Heritage Sites, four national parks & the Tatra mountains.

KOMPAS

ČIČMANY

The village ČIČMANY surrounded by the mountains Strážovské vrchy and Malá Fatra is famous for its original log houses with the typical white ornamentation.

FACTS

KOMPAS

POL

AND

Poland – situated in “The Heart of Europe”, is a country of rich history and cultural heritage, and beautiful nature, with Europe’s oldest primeval forest and an exciting modern atmosphere.

WARSAW

During the tourist season, Warsaw becomes a stage for open air concerts, drama performances and art galleries.

FACTS

The Old Town in Warsaw found its place on the Unesco List of World Heritage Sites in 1980. There are over 100 events every month in Warsaw including markets, concerts & fairs.

KRAKOW

Kraków Market Square is the largest in Europe and is designated as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

FACTS

Kraków is one of the oldest human settlements in Poland since 20,000 BC. The tallest structures on Kraków skyline are not skyscrapers but the spires of old churches.

GDANSK

Gdansk is part of the Three-city, urban area, made up of the towns of Gdansk (Old Town), Gdynia (Port-Harbour), and Sopot (most famous Beach Resort).

FACTS

Gdansk still has its historical Beer Bell that was used to announce the opening of pubs in the old times.

KOMPAS

POZNAN

Poznań is one of the oldest and largest cities in Poland, located conveniently halfway between two European capitals - Berlin and Warsaw

FACTS

Poznan is the birthplace of modern Poland. It was the capital during the middle of the 10th century and still holds the name "Stoleczne Miasto Poznan" ("The Capital City of Poznan").

AUSTRIA

Austria is a country of contrasts boasting sophisticated cities crammed with culture-seeking tourists as well as epic Alpine scenery and snowy slopes brimming with skiers.

KOMPAS

VIENNA

Vienna is the capital of Austria and the world's capital of music. Its artistic and intellectual legacy was shaped by residents including Mozart, Beethoven and Sigmund Freud.

FACTS

The Museum Quarter is the largest museum complex in Europe. It covers an area of 60 thousand square meters and has about 70 cultural facilities.

KOMPAS

SALZBURG

FACTS

The Hallstatt salt mine with its mining methods and Subterranean lake hides the history of more than 7,000 years.

KOMPAS

HUN

GARY

This small country is one of the oldest European countries, situated in the middle of the continent in Central Europe.

KOMPAS

BUDAPEST

A city in a stunning natural setting with a rich architectural and historical heritage, offering a combination of culture, fine cuisine and thermal baths...

FACTS

Budapest has more thermal springs than any other capital city in the world. It has the third largest Parliament building in the world with an area of 18,000 sq m.

LAKE BALATON

Lake Balaton is a freshwater lake in western Hungary. It's a major holiday destination with beaches, volcanic hills and resort towns.

FACTS

The southern border of the lake is very fertile, and the volcanic soils to the northwest form the basis of a noted wine-growing region.

EGER

Eger is a beautiful historical town located in Northern Hungary. It's most famous for its castle, cathedral, red wine, Baroque palaces and Turkish remains.

FACTS

Beneath Eger lie 96 km of tunnels that in times past provided building stone, sanctuary against invading Turks, and, more recently, cellars to mature wine.

A country that is both exotic and familiar. History, art, food, music, architecture, culture, sacred sites, charming villages, and stunning scenery are all around, and in an amazing atmosphere.

ROME

A mix of haunting ruins, inspiring art and vibrant street life, Italy's capital is one of the world's most romantic and charismatic cities.

FACTS

Nearly 700,000 euros worth of coins are tossed into Rome's Trevi Fountain each year. Rome became the capital city of unified Italy in 1870, taking the title from Florence.

VENICE

Who could fail to love a city whose streets are made of water, whose buses are boats,
and where the songs of gondoliers linger in the air?

FACTS

The wooden piles on which the city was famously built, were sourced from the Karst region of what is now Slovenia & from further south, now Croatia and Montenegro.

FLORENCE

The showcase of the Italian Renaissance, Florence can at times seem like one giant art museum.

FACTS

Florence is the birthplace of pavement, its streets were paved even before Rome and Venice. It's also the birthplace of Italian language and famous Italian Gelato.

POMPEII

Mt. Vesuvius erupted violently and suddenly, engulfing the thriving Roman city and encasing it for more than a millennium in six meters of ash. Excavations uncovered more than half of its buildings.

FACTS

Before the eruption of 79 AD there was not even a word for Volcano, which was created afterwards. Volcano derives from the word Vulcan - the Roman God of the Flame.

SICILY

The island of Sicily has earned seven places on the UNESCO World Heritage Site list, three for its ancient sites, two for natural wonders, and two for architectural treasures.

FACTS

Sicilian language is so different from Italian that it could be a language on its own right. Mt Etna is the tallest volcano in Europe, about 25% of Sicilians live on its slopes.
